His Rest Was Broken

O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "I was bothered with pain in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken by frequent action of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 50-cent bottle made a real man of me. They relieve rheumatism and backache."

JOHN W. THURSTON, Island Pond.

Often Pinched.

"Ah, my poor man," said the benevolent old lady, "I suppose you are often pinched by want and hunger, are you not?"

CALLED PARADISE OF BIRDS

Great Lake Region Abounds in Rare Songsters—Attracted by the Many Lakes.

The lake region of Michigan and Wisconsin has been described as the "paradise of birds."

In Michigan alone 300 species of birds have been identified. The great lakes and the thousands of lesser lakes add to the bird life by calling to these waters the aquatic birds. Michigan has many birds whose habitat is in the far north around Hudson bay and others that live in the states south of Michigan, even along and beyond the Gulf of Mexico. The first are illustrated by the Bohemian waxwing, spruce partridge, Canadian Jay and others, while the summer red bird, the mocking bird and the cardinal red bird illustrate the second group.

The great lakes attract many birds that are usually maritime, such as gulls and terns.

Michigan abounds in lakes—there are 425, for instance, within a 25-mile radius of Battle Creek—and there are the nesting places for many interesting birds not found elsewhere.

Daily Thought.

Nine-tenths of the good that is done in the world is the result not of laws, however wise, or of resolutions, however strong, but of the personal influence of individual men and women.—Sir Samuel Chisholm.

Island Pond

Island Pond juniors lost to East Charleston nine 15 to 2. The score in the fifth inning was 2 to 2 and Island Pond was playing to win when a high fly was hit between third and home, both third baseman and catcher tried to get under it and collided with some force; Lefebvre had lost two teeth in the collision and Goulet's eye just above the eyebrow was split open and he was unconscious over an hour. The juniors, it is hoped, will get together again and go after the Charleston boys.

The fall schedule and change of time of trains on the G. T. R. takes effect Sept. 12. Trains 4 and 5 will be discontinued between Island Pond and Berlin and will be replaced by trains 552 and 449; these trains will be mixed; 552 will leave Island Pond at 6:30 and connect with the Maine Central at North Stratford for passengers who wish to go to Lancaster, Wells River and intermediate points in northern New Hampshire and northern and western Vermont; 449 will arrive at Island Pond at 7:30 p.m.

The next attraction at the Island Pond opera house Saturday, Sept. 11th, will be the Vitagraph Company's production of Hall Caine's superb love story, "The Christian," in eight parts and 500 scenes. An all star cast of vitagraph players is headed by Miss Edith Storey and Earle Williams. More than 3,000 people are seen in the picture, which at once can be considered as the best acting picture ever made, as well as the most elaborate and careful presentation of any photoplay now before the public. "The Christian" as a novel was a great success. Later it was dramatized and brought fame and wealth to Miss Viola Allen. Its present form is its best, inasmuch as the talky dialogue of the novel and drama have been eliminated and the many scenes which were omitted in the stage version are utilized in the pictured version. It is a superb production of a wonderful story, and having been made by the justly celebrated Vitagraph Company, who provided its best players and the most stupendous production they could conceive, it becomes a photoplay masterpiece. Miss Edith Storey assumes the difficult role of Glory Quayle, investing it with a youthful abandon and a mature understanding seemingly impossible to register on the screen. Her work is marvellous, as evinced by the widespread commendation which her work has invariably received. She is "The Bernhardt of the Screen" and no finer selection could have been made for the great part. Her principal co-worker is Earle Williams, who portrays John Storm in a masterful manner, giving the character a human touch which is most appealing. Others in this wonderful cast are Charles Kent, James Lackaye, James Merriman, Harry S. Northrup, Donald Hall, Edward Kimball, J. W. Sambrook, Miss Jane Fearnley, Miss Alberta Gallatin and Miss Carlotta de Felice.

Many Complaints Heard.

This summer many persons are complaining of headaches, lame backs, rheumatism, nervousness and of being "always tired." Aches, pains and ills caused by kidneys not doing their work yield quickly to Foley Kidney Pills. They help eliminate, give sound sleep and make you feel better.

JOHN W. THURSTON, Island Pond.

Empty Headed.

Mr. Bore—don't see why people keep diaries, do you? Miss Lenore—Why, to write down their thoughts, keep a record of their affairs and Mr. Bore (interrupting her)—But that's all foolishness. I can keep those in my head. Miss Lenore—That's a very good way; but, then, not everybody has the room—Judge.

What Interested Her.

"The overture is about to begin. We might as well go in."

"Did you get your wife a book of the opera?"

"No. She doesn't care for the opera. I would pay well, however, for a catalogue or price list of the jewels being worn in the boxes."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Wake Me Up When Kirby Dies." There must be many old timers still living who remember the days of the stock company at the Old Bowery theater. These will easily recall both Kirby and Eddy, the latter of whom was very popular and whose name gave rise to the call heard for so many years and still heard sometimes among the gallery gods, "Eddy-eddy-eddy!" Kirby was famous for his dying scenes. While it was not generally delectable, his death was always so much the better part of the show that many spectators preferred to sleep through the other portions of the play, while their less sophisticated companions would wake them up "when Kirby died."—New York Sun.

The Practical Side. "During the entire service you never kept your eyes off the diamonds of the woman in front of you," remonstrated he. "Well," replied she, "there are set stones in stones."—Philadelphia Ledger.

H. E. Reynolds, assistant cashier of the Boston office of the Western Union Tel. Co., who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. W. C. Christie, returned to his home in Everett, Mass., Labor day.

The field day held at Canaan Wednesday, Sept. 1st, on the grounds of the Union A. A., was a most successful affair and bespeaks much for the untiring efforts of Rev. W. C. Christie and the committee in charge.

The day was ideal and the excellent program was carried out before an unusually large and enthusiastic crowd. The sports and contests were hard fought and brought rounds of applause from the pleased spectators. Excellent music was furnished throughout the day and evening by the Sawyerville (P. Q.) Brass Band. Two ball games took place during the day, the home team being returned a winner twice. A 2 to 1 win over Colebrook occurred in the morning while Barnston was defeated 11 to 3 in the afternoon.

The production of "Old Homestead" in the Gelm House in the evening under the direction of H. F. Olmstead of Lancaster brought out a capacity crowd—in fact the play was so well taken that it was repeated next evening. Mr. Olmstead, who has moved to West Stewartstown and opened undertaking rooms in the Moore block, spent a week in the preparation of this most popular play, and all but three parts were taken by local people. All of those attending spoke in the highest praise of all those taking part and the courtesy and liberality of Mr. Olmstead in rehearsing and preparing the play was especially appreciated. The proceeds, which were for the benefit of the M. E. church, far exceeded the expectations of the committee, and the sincere thanks of the pastor is extended to all who in any way contributed to make the Field Day a success.
